2. Colonel White has advised me that he contacted you at about 6:30 p.m. on 6 May and that you worked on the charts until well after midnight in order that they might be ready for me at 8:30 a.m. on 7 May.

3. I wish to inform you that the charts were excellent and, as you know, were used at a very important meeting on the morning of 7 May. I also wish to commend you for a job well done and for the wholehearted spirit which you demonstrated in preparing this information in a highly useable form within a minimum of time.
